Choice Herefords Will Be Sold at Auction at State Fairgrounds-Angus Cattle To Be Sold Tuesday.

JACKSON, Miss., March 29. (Spl.)—
Stockmen from all parts of the state, breeders of the standard types of purebred cattle, are here to attend the meeting of the Mississippi Livestock association, which will be in progress until Tuesday afternoon.

When the convention was called to order at the board of trade rooms this morning at 10 o'clock, it was by far the largest assembly of stockmen ever held in the state, and the convention promises to be one of exceptional interest.

promises to be one of exceptional interest.

A big feature of the meeting will be a public auction of choice Herefords, picked from the leading herds of the state, to be held at the state fair-grounds, this afternoon. Some of the beat Hereford blood of the country will be offered at the auction.

Tuesday afternoon the Angus breeders will have their inning, and a choice lot of young bulls and cows will be offered at auction.

The meeting is one of the utmost importance, because of the fact that cattlemen are confronted with some serious problems, notable among them being the shortage of feed, due to the short hay crop last year, the small yield of cotton seed products, resulting from the bad weather during the autumn and winter, and the quarantine against Texas and Louisiana feedsuifs because of the pink boll weevil.

The stockmen assembled here today frankly admit that the cattle industry in the state is threatened with seen.

The stockmen assembled here today frankly admit that the cattle industry in the state is threatened with a serious slump. Production during the past year was far below the figures for 1917 and 1918.

It is the purpose of the leaders, however, to make an earnest effort to revive drooping shifts, awaken interest among the breeders, and figure out ways and means of meeting the altered conditions.

The convention was called to order by President John Anderson, of Flora, who lelivered an interesting address during delivered an interesting address during the foremon on the general aspects of live stock farming. The stockmen were welcomed to Jackson in a short address by Gov. Russell.

One of the most interesting features of the morning program was an address by Prof. S. M. Tracy, of Biloxi, on the grasses and forage crops of Mississippl. Prof Tracy is a veteran specialist employed by the department of agriculture, and for many years has been conducting a series of experiments with native grasses. He was followed by Mr. S. W. Greene, who delivered an address on pasture improvement. There will be a night meeting at 7:30 colock at which Dr. Talt Butler. of Memphis, will make a talk on feeding work stock; Prof. J. R. Ricks will discussified educates feed crops, and Mr. Joe King will make an address on finishing steers.

Tusday's program is replete with good features, prominent stockmen from this apply of the states of feeding and breeding and prediments as a serious present of sections and breeding are as of feeding and breeding and prediments.

and other states discussing various phases of feeding and breeding, care of baby breves, swine feeding and grazing of cattle in the prairie section. It will be followed in the afternoon by the auction of Angus cattle.

Moving Pictures

"Pollyanna," the delightful "Glad" story of novel and speaking stage came to the Strand Sunday in the pictures with Mary Pickford in the title role. From a humorous and sentimental standpoint it is a triumph, bringing a message of sunshine and gladness. "Pollyanna" rightfully has been named the "glad" play for one can not but fail to be glad after receiving the message so radiant with the joy of living if one takes the viewpoint of this little orphan lassie. On leaving the Strand one is glad he has seen "Pollyanna."

"Pollyanna."

The crowded audience that welcomed the picture Sanday was one that enthusiastically expressed its appreciation of the skilfully produced picture of a wholesome and simple story in which tenderness and romance walked hand and hand with joy and romance. First into the home of the New England aunt, then into the "King's castle," and finally into the heart of the prince, Mary Pickford as Pollyanna is thoroughly delightful.

The engagement is for the entire week.

URGE OBSERVANCE OF "BETTER SCHOOL WEEK"

SENATOBIA, Miss., March 29. (Spl.)
—Mrs. H. P. Hughes, president of the state mothers' congress and parent-teacher association, is sending out a call for all parent-teacher associations in Mississippi to observe better schools week, as named by Superintendent Bond, March 29 to April 3. Mr. Hughes says the matter is of so grave importance it should be brought to the attention of every citizen of Mississippi. A meeting of the parent-teacher association in every community, with the follow-up canvass of conditions in the rural schools; and a campaign for increased satarles to hold the parent-teaching force, and to induce the hundreds of graduates from our state colleges to step into the vacant places, could be of greatest assistance to the state department of education in its effort to secure a sufficient number of teachers and to make the schools really efficient.

JUST THINK OF CADOMENE

When You Find You Are Losing Out in the Game of Life.

Worn-Out, Nervous Men and Weak, Bloodless, Anaemic Women Have Found New Strength and Vigor in Taking Cadomene Tablets.

A well-known writer on physical culture says: "You can not run a high-powered engine without fuel. You can not get much speed without plenty of steam. You can not up much steam without plenty of coal and a perfectly working furnace (body). Similarly, in your own case, the internal "works" must be sound and working properly. That tired feeling—do you know what it means? It means that digestion and nutrition are lacking. It means that your blood and nerves are impoverished it means that slow but sure decline in your vitality will surely ensue and real sickness will overtake you, unless you bestir yourself in overcoming the weakness of the organs responsible. This is not written to frighten. In reality it expresses logical facts. Cadomene Tablets, the favorite prescription of a great physician, are made, and sold by druggists for people who need help for insture's forces, owing to ignerance, neglect or dissipation of one kind or another. Every package is guaranteed to please or money back.

NEGRO ATTEMPS TO PICK POCKET; CAUGHT

The reputation of being an unfalling craps shooter in crucial moments, which was enjoyed by one Joe Spain, negro, of Helena, Ark., had always stood him in good stead until the dve went wrong Sunday for the first time in the game Spain was alleged to have been playing. He soon felt the heavy milt of the law on his shoulder.

Spain is locked up in the city jail on a formal charge of attempted larceny from the person following his alleged attempt to steal the pocketbook belonging to D. R. Hunter, 616 Goodwyn institute.

Hunter was standing on the rear of a Florida street car at Vance avenue Sunday when someone snatched at the flap on his rear pocket. Grabbing all the contractor, it is highly probable that Contractor Ellis will resign. Mr. Ellis will call the commissioners together Monday and if he can induce them to release him from the heavy bond he is under he will ask to be relieved from any other obligations under the contract.

Loew's Lyceum.

There is a lot of pep to the bill that the first half of the week. The analypy opened Sunday at Low's Lycoum for the first half of the week. The snalphy manner in which the vaudealle moves makes up for any shortcomings that may appear in other departments.

Art Harris is a comedian whe grows on one. As "I'll Say So" progresses. Harris wins his audience. Lines and situations in this farce sketch are clever. The east of four is well balanced. The song material used is not fresh from the mills of the song writers but well put over.

Col. Diamond and his granddaughter open the vaudetille with the dance numbers featuring a hesitation. Col. Diamond's philosophical talk may fow the turn but the hearer is sure to be impressed with this vet's impression of life. Margorie Honner and Billy Powers, a nifty looking girl and a good comedian, get off a packet of eugenic chatter that is good enough to warrant their booking. Arthur Rigby is a blackface of ne extraordinary ability yet one of me glaring faults. Some of his gags may be advancing to the long-pants stage but he is a hard worker. Montambo and Nan, acrobats, have some difficult stunts topped off with a feature chair tumbling feat.

"Nothing But the Truth" in pictures is not the screaming farce of the speaking stage. However, it can be cassed as one of the best films that Marcus Loew has sent to Memphis for months. Taylor Holmes is at his best in the picturization of Frederic leham's novel. His efforts in working up the ridiculously funny situations are supreme and make the picture one of sustained comedy.

However, woman's wit usually prevails, and it does in 'On the Hiring Line,' the distinct New York comedy hit in which May Irwin will be seen at the Lyric on Tuesday and Wednesday nights and with a special matinee on Wednesday. Miss Irwin never has so clever a play in all her distinguished career as this comedy in which she is starring under the direction of George C Tyler. It gives her the best chance she ever had for the display of those individual talents which have made her a prime favorite with theater goers all over the continent.
